

By Kevin Siembieda

We have been working on numerous projects this week and getting a lot done. Never enough, but a lot. Wayne and I also worked through the weekend in an attempt to get projects fast tracked, and will be doing so again this weekend. Here's just some of the stuff going on this week.

UPDATE: The Rifter® Super-Subscription Drive

Subscriptions and renewals have been pouring in at a steady pace all week. I'm glad I worked to make the FREE gifts something special and unique. People are liking the pair of new prints that are available with the Charles Walton II art book Future Visions, as well as the early issues of The Rifter® and, well, everything. Awesome! There are such cool FREE items because I want to entice people into trying

The Rifter®

. I want them to realize the tremendous value of

The Rifter®

as a resource for new ideas, building adventures, and source material that is suitable for most Palladium RPG world settings.

The Rifter® Super-Subscription Drive

only happens once a year, and in addition to saving $16.95 off the retail price, you can get some cool free gifts. What's not to like? Please

keep the orders coming and enjoy.

UPDATE: Rifts® Book of Magic – Ships Next Week

I spoke with the printer and Rifts® Book of Magic should arrive at the Palladium warehouse on Thursday or Friday, next week (January 29 or 30). As soon as the book is in our hands, we will ship it to those of you with pre-orders. And with coming back in print, and a pair of new sourcebooks to quickly follow, Rifts® Book of Magic is more useful than ever.

Chaos Earth® Rise of Magic

UPDATE: Chaos Earth® Rise of Magic – February release

We hope to get this fan favorite finished and to the printer in a week or two for a February release.

UPDATE: Bizantium & the Northern Islands™ – Ships February, 2015

Rewrites and editing on Bizantium and the Northern Islands™ have been going on over the weekend and the first half of this week. I'll be back at it this weekend. The writing was a little rougher than I had hoped, but M atthew Clements

and I have made decent headway and are very happy with our changes and additions.

Glen Evans

, the primary author, did a good job on this manuscript and I think PFRPG fans will enjoy this book very much. Heck, parts of it may blow you away.

UPDATE: The Rifter® #69 – February release

Wayne continues working on and making his final selections for The Rifter® #69. Meanwhile, about half the book has undergone editing and prepping for typesetting. I hope to be assigning artwork over the weekend.

The Rifter® #69

will include material for

After the Bomb

Rifts

® and other settings. And don't forget that most material can be easily adapted from one setting to another.

UPDATE: The Rifter® #70 – Spring release

I've already assigned the cover to Chuck Walton and even approved the cover concept sketch. See, we're trying to get a jump on things and have several projects being worked on at the same time.

UPDATE: Chaos Earth® Resurrection – Spring release

I did a thorough skim of the entire book and a bunch of spot editing and rewrites. I spoke with and met Chuck Walton over the weekend and he has committed to doing the cover and much of the interior artwork. This is another title that is going to surprise and blow away some people. I'm shooting for a March or April release.

UPDATE: Advertising and promoting

We did five advertisements this week; three for a trade magazine, one for Mark Dudley's

Kickstarter-backed comic book, and the card advertisement that is going into the

AdeptiCon

Swag Bag; plus work on, and planning for, several other promotions. We have also been working with Palladium's

Megaversal Ambassadors

to arrange demos and hosting gaming for

Robotech® RPG Tactics™

and other Palladium games at stores and conventions, as well as sending out the promo items and prizes. On top of that,

Jeff Burke

and I have been planning events, displays and floor space layout for the Palladium Open House

, May 14-17, 2015

Speaking of which, Game Masters, please send Palladium and the Megaversal Ambassadors your plans for gaming events at the P

alladium Open House,

as well as any for

AdeptiCon

and

Gen Con Indy.

We are looking for G.M.s to run games and demos at all these important events.

Likewise, if you, our fans, have suggestions about places for Palladium to advertise and do promotion online and elsewhere, please tell us about them. Thanks. Always looking for new ideas.

UPDATE: More good stuff to be added to DriveThruRPG.com

We will be adding a bunch of new material to DriveThruRPG.com over the next several weeks. DriveThruRPG already offers

90+

Palladium Books titles available

as PDFs on DriveThruRPG.com with more to be made available in the coming weeks.

They currently include the Coalition Wars®/Siege on Tolkien™

series,

Splicers® RPG, The Rifter® issues #1-56

(with more being added soon), and first edition rules of the Rifts® RPG, Beyond the Supernatural™

RPG, Heroes Unlimited™ RPG, The

Palladium Fantasy RPG®,

and

related 1st edition sourcebooks for each. And more! Like what? Like

Fantasy Paper Miniatures

and

Game Master Kits

for digital download. They are available only as PDF files and were designed special to help you run your games and build campaigns. There are also sneak previews of books and other good stuff. Check it out! And let other gamers know they are available too. We'll be making more available on DriveThru in the weeks and months to come. So take a look on a regular basis.

UPDATE: Robotech® RPG Tactics™

The 10+ pallets of Kickstarter Backer rewards going to Australia were packed into a container yesterday afternoon and are on their way to the port for loading onto the ship. The rewards to the European Union should get loaded on their ship this weekend. Still can't believe the shipment has been stuck in port for weeks now; so frustrating. With any luck, Kickstarter packages in both Australia and the EU will be in country and shipping by the end of February and hitting stores sometime in March.

As noted under Advertising and promoting, above, we are working on a number things to support and promote Robotech® RPG Tactics[™], including an ongoing FAQ to be posted online, much more detailed and elaborate building instructions, other useful information and tools, and a lot of good stuff.

UPDATE: Palladium Books at AdeptiCon – March 19-22 –
www.adepticon.org

Palladium will be contributing to the swag bags, contributing to the charity auction and offering a special booth coupon, as well as bringing Robotech®
RPG Tactics™

products and a selection of

Robotech®, Rifts

® and other RPG books to sell.

Wayne Smith, Jeff Burke,

and

myself

will be present to chat, answer questions, and have fun. There will be at least one tournament (described below), and we continue to look for additional volunteers to run RRT demos or other tournaments. If that might be you, please contact us immediately at ambassadors@palladiumbooks.com or by telephone (734-721-2903) and we will get your event added to the schedule. Thank you! We'll keep you posted if we add any special events or convention exclusives. We hope to see many of you there.

Robotech® RPG Tactics™

UPDATE: Robotech® RPG

Tactics

Tournament at AdeptiCon, March 19-22, 2015, Chicago –
www.adepticon.org

As announced last week, AdeptiCon will offer an official Robotech® RPG Tactics™
Tournament.

It is

Robotech® RPG Tactics™: Battle for Macross Island™.

Here are the highlights:

- This tournament will be 300 points and have several games with fantastic scenarios.

- Each table shall be a beautiful custom creation, for a unique gaming experience.

- Five different awards will ensure that no matter what aspect of the hobby you are most interested in there is an award that will be for you.

- This tourney is for all levels of players from first time tournament and convention attendants to the seasoned gamer.

- If you find yourself in the Chicagoland area, we would love for you to sign up, stop by and say hello and meet a group of people that have the same interests as you. Even if you are unlikely to play, we would be happy to meet everyone. Come join the fun, fast-paced game of Robotech® RPG Tactics™. Slots are limited!

Another Robotech® RPG Tactics™ Event – Arcticon – Saturday, March 7 at Valparaiso University – Harre Union – Indiana – www.arcticon.webs.com

There will be three, two hour Robotech® RPG Tactics™ games, and an all day, 8 hour RRT space battle royale.

The Massive Robotech® RPG Tactics™ Space Battle will last for 8 hours with new players joining the battle all day long.

The action takes place on an 18x18 foot space map created by Peter Pidrak

In one corner,
there will be a scale

Zentraedi Scout ship

that will be launching

Reconnaissance, Attack, and Attrition Squadrons of Battlepods.

In the other corner

will be waves of UEDF Valkyries flying in to stop the alien invaders.

This big RRT event will be running all day with new players joining throughout. Whenever a player shows interest in wanting to play, the organizers, Jake and Peter, will hand him a squad from the side that is currently losing, and a clear plate for quick squad movement across the distance. In those cases, in lieu of the Command Point cost for extra movement, they will add the ability to move twice and not fire, at least until they get within range. When a player's unit is destroyed, the player can choose a new unit and keep fighting, or walk away and let someone new play. Sounds like a cool event to us. www.arcticon.webs.com

UPDATE: Gen Con Indy – July 30 to August 2, 2015

Palladium gaming events at Gen Con went over great last year. The most we had ever offered. We want to see even MORE Palladium gaming events being offered at the 2015 Gen Con Indy

. To make that happen we NEED Game Masters to contact Palladium Books and/or Gen Con game coordinators Victor Peterson and NMI

now!

To get into the Gen Con Games Pre-Registration and the program books, Gen Con needs ALL game information by mid-February to make it into the first round of events. So please start making your plans, writing your descriptions and sending them in to the Palladium Megaversal Ambassadors pronto at ambassadors@palladiumbooks.com;

or contact us

by telephone (734-721-2903)

. We are also looking for volunteers familiar with RRT and wargames to run demos of

Robotech® RPG Tactics™

in the miniatures area of Gen Con.

Super-Subscription Drive
. We want people to discover
The Rifter®

as a valuable resource, so we are offering the biggest selection of FREE gifts ever as an enticement. Gamers already familiar with always jump at this offer. That's because, even when late,

The Rifter®

The Rifter

® has been so consistently good, it is hard to say no to the

The free gift is always a nice incentive, and this year the selection is truly unique and fun. I have dug through the Palladium archives to make a number of out of print titles and “special” items available. For us, gaming is all about friends and fun, so enjoy and have fun.

Note: The early issues of Th e Rifter

® are limited and available only while supplies last. Please keep the orders coming and enjoy.

Here are four reasons (and 7 gift choices) why this is the perfect time to try The Rifter® or r enew your subscription:

1. Save $16 off retail and each issue is delivered right to your door.

2. FREE gift worth $17.90 to $35.85 when you order now!
7 gift choices.

3. Order during the Super-Subscription Drive to lock in your low, low subscription price for the next year.

4. The Rifter® has been outstanding and is the place to find regular source material for Beyond the Supernatural™

, Palladium Fantasy®, Splicers®, and

Heroes Unlimited

™ and other settings. And future issues will have more playing and G.M. tips.

If you haven't taken a look at The Rifter

® lately (if ever)

, I suggest you try an issue.

The Rifter®

is an excellent source of ideas, characters, monsters, villains, powers, magic and adventures for your own game. Even articles designed for settings you don't play are likely to offer ideas and material you can easily modify and incorporate into your campaign. In fact, drawing on concepts from outside the usual setting can spice up your game and keep players guessing.

The Rifter

® is a great tool for that. That's the beauty of the Palladium Megaversal Game System ; you can often take characters, gear and ideas from one world setting and drop them into ANY of the other settings with no or little work. Other times, the amount of modification is minimal to make it work in a different setting. That means a monster from

Palladium Fantasy

® can be easily used as a monster, mutant or alien in Heroes Unlimited™, After the Bomb®,

Robotech®, Rifts®,

Nightbane®,

The Mechanoids®, Chaos

Earth®

or

Splicers

®, and vice versa

. What needs to be adjusted?

Perhaps just changing Hit Points/S.D.C. and damage to Mega-Damage, or M.D.C. and M.D. to Hit Points/S.D.C., or some other minor tweak.

Characters from Heroes
Unlimited

TM

and

After the Bomb

® can be from the future, or the past (depending on the setting), or they can be mutants, or aliens, or beings from another or parallel world. As I am so wont to say, you are limited only by your imagination

. The same holds true for towns, cities and adventures – use that place and the adventure ideas tailored to a different setting. Sure you may have to swap out monsters and treasure, or adjust motives, but you might be surprised how easy, fun and different that adventure plays out in a different world environment.

And

The Rifter®

is the ultimate source for alternative, new and different ideas, adventures, characters, and story ideas. All of which can be tweaked to fit most settings, as can optional rules.

The Rifter

® is a factory for alternative ideas.

The Rifter®
Super-Subscription Offer is your chance to try
The Rifter®
at a discount price and get a FREE gift. Offer ENDS

Chaos Earth

Sourcebook – February

The reason this book kept getting pushed back is that it is not a simple reprint. We had many corrections to make and the entire book has to be re-typeset and laid out like a new book. Art had to be found and scanned. Well, we will have it to the printer soon and in your hands by the end of January or early February.

The return of magic has empowered humans with strange and wondrous powers

unlike anything quite yet seen (and different from most conventional types of magic). This only complicates things

TM

Bizantium and

Secrets of the Coalition States: The Disavowed

“Desperate

times require desperate measures. War has nothing to do with morality or justice. It's all about winning or dying. We cannot bind our hands with high ideals, even our own, or worry about the laws

of renegade nations or the rights of alien people. We must fight fire with fire. And you are the match.” –

*Colonel Lyboc
addressing a Disavowed
team*

The Disavowed
are so Top Secret that their existence is known only to a handful of the Coalition

States' most elite, top echelon, with J oseph Prosek II
the mastermind behind the Disavowed

operation, and Colonel Lyboc
its shadowy face. Find out who these men and women are. How the Disavowed get away with using magic, traveling to other parts of Rifts Earth and even to other dimensions in pursuit of enemies and strategic information that cannot be had through conventional means. Learn about the secret parameters in which these hard-boiled

warriors,

secretly hand-picked by Joseph Prosek

almost every mission is considered a suicide mission, and why they must forever be the Disavowed.
